Petition to Revoke Power of Attorney and Appoint New Agent under 37 CFR 1.182

Sir:

Petitioner The Hartz Mountain Corporation ("Hartz") hereby petitions the Director, under 37 C.F.R. §1.182, to accept the revocation of the power of attorney by less than all owners dated October 27, 2006. Specifically, Petitioner hereby petitions to revoke the power of attorney previously granted to Bracewell & Giuliani LLP and its attorney and agents as the attorney or agent ("Bracewell") to prosecute U.S. Pat. Application No. 10/800,407. Petitioner Hartz is the owner of record of 50 percent undivided interests of the applications. Petitioner wishes to reinstate the original agent of record, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan, L.L.C. as Petitioner's representative before the Patent and Trademark Office. In support of this Petition, Petitioner submits herewith the Declaration of Max C. Marx.

SSL-DOCS1 1789045v1

App. No.: 10/800,407
Filed: March 12, 2004

The petition to revoke the power of attorney and to appoint a new representative by less than all owners is acceptable with "good and sufficient reasons as to why such papers should be accepted." MPEP 402.10. Petitioner's petition should be granted because it is supported by good and sufficient reason because Bracewell acted in conflict with Petitioner's interest in breach of proper procedures required by the June 28, 2006 Agreement by and among Virbac, Inc. (the other co-owner), Chanelle Pharmaceuticals Manufacturing Limited and The Hartz Mountain Corporation (the "Main Agreement"); the June 29, 2006 Patent Interest Agreement by and between Virbac and Hartz (the "Patent Interest Agreement"), and those specified by the Patent and Trademark Office.

Petitioner has received certain documents that were filed by Bracewell with the Patent and Trademark Office on February 12, 2007 in another pending patent application co-owned by Hartz and Virbac, U.S. App. No. 10/567,635. These documents sought to add two new inventors and to remove two inventors to that application. Marx Dec. at ¶ 7. However, Bracewell's filing does not comply with the proper requirement to change inventorship as described in MPEP 201.03. Bracewell's request to add and delete inventors was without Petitioner's permission in violation of 37 CFR 1.48(a), which requires the written consent of every existing assignee. MPEP 201.03(D). Bracewell made these filings unilaterally, presumably at the request of co-assignee Virbac, without providing Petitioner a meaningful opportunity to review the materials and comment. Such opportunity is provided by the Agreements. Marx Dec. at ¶¶ 11-13.

Furthermore, at least two of the documents Bracewell filed on February 12, 2007, including a document entitled "Petition Regarding Unavailable or Uncooperative Inventors", was not previously presented to Petitioner for review. Marx Dec. at ¶ 8.

App. No.: 10/800,407
Filed: March 12, 2004

In the Petition Regarding Unavailable or Uncorporative Inventors, Virbac through Bracewell represents to the USPTO that Albert Ahn and Ian Cottrell, named inventors, were each "unavailable" in its filed on the same date. Marx Dec. at ¶9. Petitioner disputes the representations about their unavailability. Bracewell did not forward its unilateral filing to Petitioner for review until 11:45 am EST on February 12 – the day the filings were made. Marx Dec. at ¶5. Its accompanying letter demanded that two current inventors, Albert Ahn and Ian Cottrell, who were no longer Hartz employees, execute declarations regarding inventorship that they likely did not believe were true. Id. Bracewell's conduct falls far short of the "diligent effort" to reach the inventors required by 37 C.F.R. 1.47 to prove unavailability, as discussed under MPEP 409.03. That Albert Ahn and Ian Cottrell were unable to sign the oath was caused by Bracewell not presenting the documents in time for their proper review and in all likelihood, because they did not consent to Bracewell's attempts to alter the inventorship entity.

Petitioner does not consent to the filing of the document that contains statement it disagrees with and did not even have an opportunity to review. In fact, Petitioner repeatedly objected to the filing of the documents. Marx Dec. at ¶10.

Given the inadequate notice to Petitioner, the disregard for proper protocol and format, and disagreement with the substance of the filing, Petitioner could not give consent to the filing. Yet, Bracewell submitted the documents to the Patent and Trademark Office, potentially rewriting the history of these inventions to Hartz' detriment. Thus, Petitioner no longer believes Bracewell was or will suitably represent Petitioner's interests in this matter.

Apart from filing documents and making representations without the consent of Petitioner, Bracewell's action creates a conflict with Petitioner's contractual interest embodied in the Patent Interest Agreement and the Main Agreement. As a result of these Agreements, the application, which was previously jointly assigned to Hartz and Chanelle Corporation was subsequently assigned to Hartz and Virbac. Marx Dec. at ¶¶2-3. Now, Bracewell has taken actions on behalf of Virbac that directly conflicts with Hartz' rights under the Agreements. For example, ¶3.3 of the Patent Interest Agreement requires that:

App. No.: 10/800,407

[I]n the event that either Party learns of a claim regarding inventorship of the Patents, that Party will give written notice to the other Party as soon as reasonably practicable and the Parties agree to use commercially reasonable best efforts to cooperate, as necessary, to prepare responses and other filings regarding inventorship of the Patents.

Marx Dec. at ¶11. As previously discussed, Virbac did not give notice of its recent filing "as soon as reasonably practicable." In view of Bracewell's actions, Petitioner revoked Bracewell's power of attorney and requested Bracewell to withdraw from representing Petitioner, in a letter dated March 16, 2007. Marx Dec. ¶14.

Petitioner respectfully submits that the Director should accept the revocation of Bracewell's power of attorney and reinstate Stroock & Stroock & Lavan, L.L.C. to act as its representative before the Office. No fee, other than the $400.00 fee for the filing of a petition under 37 C.F.R. 1.182, is deemed necessary in connection with this Petition. However, if any other fee is due the amount of any fee may be charged to Deposit Account No. 19-4709.

Respectfully submitted,

Declaration of Max C. Marx in Support of 37 C.F.R. § 1.182 Petition

I, Max C. Marx, Esq., declare the following:

1. I am the Corporate General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of The Hartz Mountain Corporation ("Hartz"), one of the two co-assignees having 50 percent undivided interest in the above referenced application.
2. The application was filed on March 12, 2004 and subsequently assigned by the inventors to Hartz and Chanelle Pharmaceuticals Manufacturing Limited ("Chanelle") jointly, each possessing a 50 percent undivided interest. Stroock & Stroock & Lavan, L.L.P. was appointed the counsel of record before the Patent and Trademark Office and filed the application and assignment documents.
3. Subsequently, Virbac, Inc. ("Virbac"), Chanelle and Hartz entered into an Agreement on June 28, 2006. Virbac and Hartz entered into a separate Patent Interest Agreement on June 29, 2006. As a result of these agreements, the application was reassigned to Hartz and Virbac, each possessing a 50 percent undivided interest.

SSL-DOCS1 1789284v1

App. No.: 10/800,407
Filed: March 12, 2004

4. As per their agreement, Hartz and Virbac then granted a power of attorney to Bracewell & Giuliani LLP ("Bracewell") to represent both co-owners. The previous power of attorney to Stroock was revoked.

5. At about noon, February 12, 2007, I received a set of documents from Bracewell relating to U.S. Pat. App. No. 10/567,635, another pending application that is jointly owned between Hartz and Virbac on a 50/50 undivided basis. The documents included a response to a patent office missing parts communication and a set of attached documents to be filed with the Patent and Trademark Office on the same day. The same communication requested that two current inventors, Albert Ahn and Ian Cottrell (ex-Hartz employees), to execute declarations regarding the inventorship of the applications, which named purported inventors they had never worked with.

6. I did not have adequate time to review the inventorship issues and act on the documents. Furthermore, I disagreed with some of the substance of what I did review. As a result of the lack of notice, the disregard for proper protocol and format, and my disagreement with the substance of the filing, I instruct Bracewell not to file the documents to modify the inventorship.

7. On February 23, 2007, I received another communication from Bracewell, forwarding a set of documents it had filed in U.S. Pat. App. No. 10/567,635 with the Patent and Trademark Office on February 12, 2007 without Hartz' consent. These documents sought to add two new inventors and to remove two of the originally named inventors. I recognized some of the documents as the ones I reviewed and refused to give consent on February 12, 2007.

8. In addition, I found at least one document that had been filed without my review, because it was not among the documents furnished to me on February 12, 2007—a Petition Regarding

SSL-DOCS1 1789284v1

App. No.: 10/800,407
Filed: March 12, 2004

Unavailable or Uncooperative Inventors. This petition listed Albert Ahn and Ian Cottrell as unavailable or uncooperative inventors.

9. Furthermore, a review of the documents shows that Bracewell filed an unsigned declaration and oath including the new list of inventors without signature. In my view there was no support for considering Albert Ahn and Ian Cottrell unavailable or uncooperative. For the same reasons, I disagree with the representation that Albert Ahn and Ian Cottrell were unavailable in the Petition Regarding Unavailable or Uncooperative Inventors.

10. Bracewell filed these documents without the consent of Hartz, a co-assignee. I made addition objections to Bracewell subsequent to the unauthorized filing and demanded Bracewell to forward the missing documents.

11. Paragraph 3.1 of the Patent Interest Agreement between Hartz and Virbac, which I signed on June 24, 2006, requires that:

VIRBAC shall diligently file, prosecute and maintain the Patents, at its own cost during the term of this Agreement; HARTZ shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to cooperate with VIRBAC in such filing, prosecuting or maintaining of any Patent.

12. Paragraph 3.3 of the Patent Interest Agreement between Hartz and Virbac, which I signed on June 24, 2006, requires that:

[I]n the event that either Party learns of a claim regarding inventorship of the Patents, that Party will give written notice to the other Party as soon as reasonably practicable and the Parties agree to use commercially reasonable best efforts to cooperate, as necessary, to prepare responses and other filings regarding inventorship of the Patents.

SSL-DOCS1 1789284v1

App. No.: 10/800,407
Filed: March 12, 2004

13. Bracewell's filing on behalf of Virbac did not give notice to Hartz "as soon as reasonably practicable" and Bracewell's belated communication with Hartz fails to evidence diligent filing and prosecution of the patents. Therefore, its action further conflicts with the Patent Interest Agreement.

14. I no longer believe that Bracewell is acting in Hartz's interest and Hartz wishes to revoke the power of attorney given to them. On March 16, 2007, I sent a letter to Bracewell revoking Hartz' previous grant of the power of attorney.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
